

SAP Resourcing On Demand

Amick Brown has a mature on-demand SAP consulting support model for clients who desire to have continued high caliber support but may not necessarily require full-time onsite consultants.

On Demand Support

- Value driven best in class consultants when and where needed
- Great for spot consulting, part-time consulting needs and special initiatives
- Onshore senior consultants provide SAP support remotely
- No upfront cost
- Flexible monthly service block of hours tailored to fit your need
- Roll-over of unused hours within a given period

High quality yet lower cost alternative to conventional support methods that use an offshore model or full-time on-site consultants.

Platinum Level Consultants

- Superior SAP expertise across multiple SAP modules
- Highly efficient team saves time and money
- Excellent SAP proficiency results in quick resolution to complex problems
- Ability to leverage our support team to implement new functionality and roll-outs

Save time and money with our ready team of senior consultants precisely when you need them. Continue to have highest caliber support at a fraction of the cost of an outsourced model.

SAP Resourcing

Amick Brown is Really Good at Placing Really Good People

TOP TIER SAP RESOURCES MATCHED TO YOUR SPECIFIC NEEDS

Selection Method

- Our recruitment team is in-house and personally managed by a Senior Managing Partner.
- Matching corporate culture is as important as skill. Our success rate is driven by understanding the entire picture, not just position and required skills.
- We utilize a wide-ranging vetting process to ensure candidates have the skills, knowledge and experience appropriate for the position.
- Our Amick Brown Hands-on Selection Method insures on-going satisfaction for client and consultant.

Save Time and Save Money – our goal is to provide two qualified candidates and you hire one of them.

Continuity of Service

- The Amick Brown Executive Leadership team is involved in all phases of the engagement and remain available to our clients at all times.
- To support service continuity, we support cross-training and knowledge transfer among our supplied consultants and with the client team members.
- For each position, Amick Brown maintains a position package and checklist. Included is a specific knowledge transfer plan for handoff as the project/assignment completes.
- Within our Resourcing framework are retention incentives, training, reward and recognition, job rotation upon completion of each project, and career development.

We strive to provide both our clients and our consultants with a mutually beneficial experience.
